

Holston House is an homage to the adventurer in each of us—a celebration of the city that nurtures the bold, creative spirit. Set in a celebrated Art Deco building in the heart of downtown, boasting interiors reimaged by noted design firm Stonehill & Taylor, the hotel features 191 guest rooms, including plush One-Bedroom Suites and two 12th Floor Penthouse Suites. Thoughtful amenities, a timeless sensibility, and a passion for all things well-crafted—from the carefully-sourced décor to the locally-sourced food and beverage—define the soul of Holston House.

DINING

The restaurants and bars at Holston House are inspired by local flavor, regional produce and ingredients, and Southern hospitality.

- TENN – TENN is a neighborhood restaurant, where visitors join locals for approachable American cuisine with hints of Southern flavor. Inspired by local farmers, purveyors and craftsmen, the dishes at TENN are healthful, vibrant and loaded with the region's seasonal produce and ingredients.
- Bar TENN – At Bar TENN, gather for honest American small bites with hints of Southern flavor, washed down with craft beers, classic cocktails or a glass of wine. From late morning until late night, Bar TENN is open to meet, greet and work with friends and colleagues. In addition to a fully comprehensive bar offering, specialty roasted coffee and espresso drinks are served all day. Wifi is complimentary.
- TENN on Top – TENN on Top offers dramatic city views from day until night. At sunset, regularly scheduled DJ's and live music transform the relaxed pool deck into a casual and intimate lounge and nightlife destination. The rooftop bar is stocked with Bourbons, Scotches and Whiskeys, carefully selected to showcase the unique qualities and flavor profiles of each spirit. A menu of hot and cold small plates is available.
